AROUND

SCHOOL

FOREWARD

We, the class of 1961, since we wish to retain forever the fond memories of our days at Hamilton High School, have chosen as the theme of our yearbook, "Around School", in hopes that as we move through life's labyrinth, the "Hamiltonian" will remain with us forever as a reminiscence of our years at Hamilton High.

Dedication

We, the Hamilton High School class of 1961 wish to dedicate the 1961 "Hamiltonian" to Mrs. Thomas Bergman.

Over the years, through your capable guidance and understanding, we have gained much inspiration that has served to improve our lives as students and as future citizens.

Gratitude

We, the graduating class of 1961, would like to take this opportunity to express our deep appreciation to our generous benefactress and good friend, Mrs. Bessie Preston Cutler.

Over the years, Mrs. Cutler, you have done much to make our high school days brighter and happier such as helping us with our Junior Prom decorations every year; and also in many other ways about which we have not known until much later. Thank you, Mrs. Cutler!

In Memoriam

CHRISTINE GLADYS FARGH

February 17, 1943

July 3, 1960

To those of us privileged to know Chris, the memory of her warm personality will always remain with us. The remembrance of her generosity and friendliness will be a living tribute to a wonderful classmate and a devoted friend.

FACULTY

To The Class of 1961

These are exciting times. Society is rapidly changing and so, too, are your future citizenship and leadership roles. America and the world need citizens who are intellectually and morally stronger. You can provide this direction if you will employ the skills given to you by your fine teachers and make their teachings and those of your parents and clergy part of your daily living.

To each of you, I offer my warm congratulations and best wishes for a successful future. We have followed your growth as students with pride. We will observe your future accomplishments with confidence that yours will be a real contribution to the maintenance of freedom throughout the universe.

John H. Lawson
Sup't of Schools

For the class of 1961 I have a special feeling of warmth as it is the first class which I have been with for the full six years of its journey through Hamilton High. As I have seen growth in knowledge and wisdom modify the behavior and attitude of the members of your class, so do I hope that you have found a like growth on my part. This would be the message I would have you take with you, that there should never be a time when you cease to change because of this learning. Be ready to admit your mistakes, but learn by them and do not repeat them.

May the success of the class of 1961 in the future fulfill the promise shown in its years at Hamilton High.

To The Class of 1961

This yearbook is proof that a high school is a small but quite complete community, all by itself. With so much achievement in evidence, we can be assured that our young people will soon be making substantial contributions in their various places of advanced study and employment.

The era of pessimism about our nation's youth is waning, and rightly so. At this very moment we can sense in our particular institution an increasing appreciation of academic achievement and a growing seriousness of purpose in general.

As you will see in the pages that follow, our faculty has many reasons for being proud of the young people of our schools!

PROPHECY

This is the conversation of the clean-up committee at Susan Pickering's barn after the class reunion on June 15, 1971. The committee consists of Claire, Spoolie Sabeau, Alan McRae, Donald Sumner, and Robert Mersereau.

Claire: It hardly seems possible that we graduated from H.H.S. ten years ago! I didn't even recognize half of the class. Some of them have certainly changed, unfortunately, not for the better. What do you think, Spoolie dumplin'?

Sue: At this point, I don't think he even knows that you're his wife.

Spool: How could I forget it! I sure envy you, Merse, with your distinguished position in the world.

Merse: Oh, it's not as great as all that... just because I've been named this year's Society Playboy.

Don: Well, Merse isn't the only one who has made the headlines lately. Haven't you seen the ads in the paper for the DiFrancesco Dancing School?

Al: I just finished taking some rhumba lessons there, and whom do you think I met? Tom Pulsifer is playing the dance music!

Don: What's some of the other news about our old Class of '61? Have you heard about the famous surgical team of Hatfield and Cook at Walter Reed Hospital?

Sue: Yes, and did you see the pictures in "Home Beautiful" of the daringly modern, plastic home designed by Hillman Barney for Mary Ayers and her husband? Himmy always did have bright ideas!

Merse: All I ever hear all day is the new theme song of the Hamill Mouth Wash Company: "Eat a bean, Chew a banana, Eat a special Hamill Bean. It makes your breath smell extra clean."

Sue: How come Nancy Hall wasn't here? I didn't see her tonight.

Claire: Haven't you heard? She's working as an undercover agent for the State Department in Siberia.

Sue: How about Higgy? I've heard she's still touring Europe after winning the Olympics Gold Medal for the High Jump in 1968.

Al: Ya, and Twin didn't do so bad either. He broke all the speed records for track.

Spool: I hear he's still running.

Claire: Finish your coffee, Spoolie. It's Judy Hill's special blend of black beans to....

Merse: Steady the nerves. Mort always uses it before his performances of "Macbeth" in the Old Vic Theater.

Don: And isn't Diana Gray playing opposite him as Lady Macbeth?

Al: Yes, and Bev Henderson and Mary Woodberry are still space ship stewardesses for the A. Chester Kirby Space Ship Transportation Company.

Sue: Have you seen Linda Noyes' new Slenderella creations? They are the new look for the petite woman.

Claire: Just yesterday I saw Anna Vallone and Beverly Pray trying on dresses there. Anna's been named the "Babysitter Most in Demand" in Beverly. It seems her father still won't let her marry Johnny. Bev is now President of the Gentlemen Prefer Blondes Peroxide Company.

Al: Did you hear LizDawe telling about her prep school for boys called St. Elizabeth's Boys' Boarding School? Ruth McCann is teaching advanced math there. Wouldn't Mr. Lane be surprised?

Sue: Too bad Pat Estey had to leave early, but she had to get back to her ocean liner before it left on a world cruise.

Merse: Yeah, it left from Essex Harbor, and Fred Townsend is going along as a stowaway. It seems he's trying to get back to his Marine Headquarters. He's been A.W.O.L. for the last three months.

Don: Dick Pulsifer is Pat's chief air-sea rescue patrolman. Did you hear about his daring rescue of Russell Sanford who fell out of the Boy Scout row boat after maneuvers?

Claire: Yes, and Linda Caldwell is living up to her nickname. She's a fisherman at Gloucester Harbor!

Al: I think the biggest news is Schwartz, who thinks for himself and plays Pro football for Viceroy Cigarettes; Flanders, who is a popular mortician in Gin Springs, Dakota; Muise, who in this summer vacation is a bomber in Guantanamo Bay; and Nancy Neville, who has won the world's record in oratory.

Claire: Hey! Someone's coming up the stairs! Who is it, Sue?

Sue: At four o'clock in the morning it could only be Gus Hoaglund, the new Mr. America!

Merse: How does the new Tarzan feel this morning?

Gus: Not exactly like swinging from vine to vine! I came back to find Lita Home. I forgot to give her a contribution for her International Lonely Hearts Club for servicemen.

Don: Oh, she left around 1:30 with Trep. He wanted to show her the Pingree School for Girls of which he is the new headmaster. Do you think he will ever leave Flying Horse Farm?

Gus: No, I don't! But I can't talk about it now, because I have to get back to my weight lifting exercises. Bye.

Claire: Bye, Gus. Watch out for speeders, B. J. Smith and her employer, Skip Wetherbee. B. J. is the test driver for Ford Station Wagons and is trying to find Skip the fastest possible route to Topsfield.

Al: Skip is also the author of the book, "One Thousand Ways to Meet and Charm Younger Girls."

Sue: Kathy is in that business, too. She's writing a handbook of rules for the men at the Trinidad Junior College.

Merse: Well, I hope you all saw the terrific write-up about me on the society page of the New York Times by Stephy Rowlands.

Claire: No, I didn't see your write-up, but I read the one about you, Al. What's it like being an artist in Greenwich Village?

Al: The life of an artist isn't so great, but as far as beatnik life goes, Sue can tell you all about it.

Sue: Man, like it's way out. I've dug it for almost 10 years. It's a gas. Like Lenny digs it too.

Claire: LENNY BROUGHTON!!! The son of a gun!!! But that's not as funny as Donny Sumner. He worried so much he flunked out of college and now he's selling tranquilizers. Oh, my gosh! Where's Donny? I forgot he was still here.

Merse: Well, if it is five o'clock, he's probably down taking a tranquilizer.

Spool: Claire, you and I better go home and see how our three sets of twins are.

Sue: Don't go yet, I want to hear about the other kids.

Al: Well, the David and Alan Liporto Destruction Company has wrecked all the houses Mr. Liporto ever built. There is another executive in the class, Terry Wills, who is Executive Vice-President of the "Never Blush Again Creme Co."

Don: Ah, I feel better now. Don't you think it's about time we break this up? After all, we are not getting any cleaning done.

Sue: Oh, don't be a "party pooper," Donnie; I want to hear about the rest of the class.

Don: It's no news that Caroline Newbegin just had a screen test and floored the directors.

Al: Oh, that's nice.

Claire: Carolyn Bryant and Linda Broughton are efficiency experts at the Shoe. They have been making time fly.

Merse: So let's hurry this thing up. I've got a big breakfast date this morning.

Don: Wait a minute. What about Carol Coe?

Al: She has sure lived up to her nick name of "cow". She has a one thousand-acre farm in Minnesota. Her cows have taken all the prizes at the state fair.

Claire: Oh, my gosh, here comes Cyn.

Cyn: What are you, some kind of nut, Sue. Haven't you got any escalator in this dump yet? I've been looking all over the place for Maynie. Where is he?

Maynie: Groan. Get me out of here!

Cyn: My gosh! What are you doing under the couch?

Maynie: What do you think I'm doing under the couch? Get me out of here! I've been listening to you talk about the rest of the old class. What about me? I've got a terrific job!

Cyn: Come off it, will you? You know you're only the truant officer for the new regional school. You sure make a good one since you know all the angles!

Sue: Well, it has been great hearing about all the kids. The good old Class of '61 sure has changed!

As the bright sun rises over Linden Street to greet the dawn of the new day, the members of the Class of 1961 slowly disperse, not to convene again until 1981.

CLASS NOTES

The Senior class's final year was full of activities, as boys contributed to their last year in sports and the girls backed them in cheering. Scholastically, numerous seniors were on the honor roll, while Nancy Hall, James Mortimer and Liz Dawe continued with their high honors as well as winning honorable mention in the National Merit Scholarship Competition. The entire class was guided by President Rick Hamill, Vice-President Sue Pickering, Secretary Ruth McCann and Treasurer Barbara Smith.

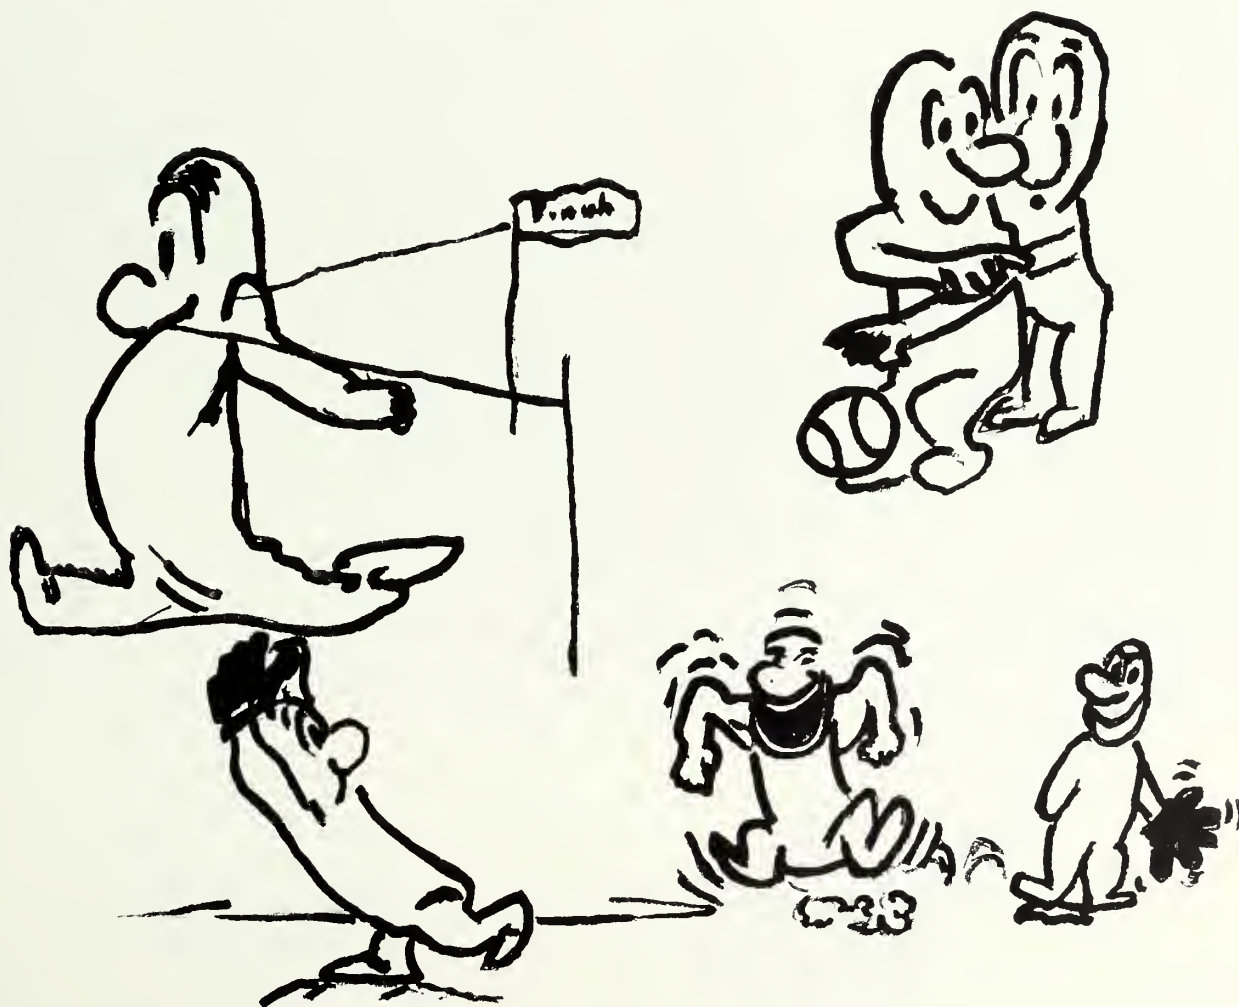

Breaking tradition, the Junior class this year bought round class rings early in the fall and have worn them proudly. Many juniors also supplemented the sports and cheering squads. The highlight of the spring and cumulative effort of the entire year was the junior prom, for which the decoration committee had done a tremendous job transforming the gym, and everyone had an enjoyable fairy tale evening. Class officers Larry Bonney, President; Joan Caraganis, Vice-President; Nancy Clay, Secretary; and Al Smerczynski, Treasurer; led the class through an important and successful year.

Officers of the Sophomore class, President Dreaener Giles, Vice-President Gail Child, Secretary Dorsett Bell, and Treasurer Cynthia Ellison enjoyed a busy year planning the January dance which was a focal point of the year. Many of the other sophomores were valued members of the teams and clubs around school.

Beginning their first year in High School the freshmen elected David Crowell, President, John Hall, Vice-President; Marilyn Townsend, Secretary; and Debbie Noone, Treasurer; to direct their efforts. Freshmen also participated in many sports and activities, some of them winning their letters.

SPORTS

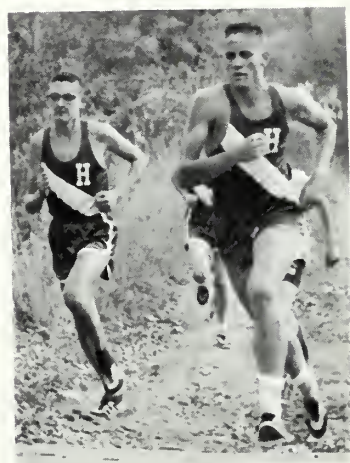

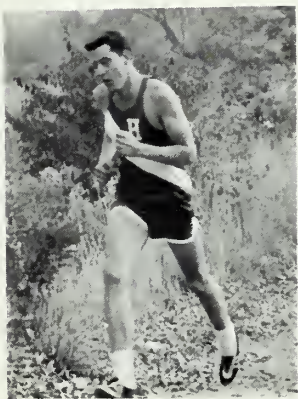

Cross Country

Row I: Fred Townsend, Richard Pulsifer, Robert Pulsifer, Terry Wills, Hillman Barney.

This year's Cross-Country team went through another undefeated season. Paced by Captain Bob Pulsifer, the team, including Dick Pulsifer, Terry Wills, Fred Townsend, and Hillman Barney, easily defeated six teams to win the Cape Ann League Cross-Country Championship. Our "Warriors" also won the Cape Ann League Open Meet and came in second in the State Meet, held at White Stadium, Boston.

Hamilton's first five runners are all seniors and will not be back next year. Coach Richard Connolly will have to rely on his second team and hope that others will come out next year.

Football

Football

Front Row: Earle Faulkner, Robert Collins, Albert Smerczynski, Gordon Webb, Michael Pond, Larry Bonney.

The Generals, led by Co-Captains Don Schwartz and Bob Trepanier, chalked up another winning season this year. Although the team dropped heart-breakers to Masconomet and Story, they managed to come through with wins over St. John's Prep, Ipswich, Perley, Essex Aggie and a tie with Pentucket. Because of their fine play, Hamilton stood third in the newly formed Cape Ann League.

Many of the football players are seniors this year and have played their last game. But there are many good underclassmen who gained valuable experience this year and are sure to give Hamilton another winning team next fall.

Varsity Basketball

Basketball

Row I: Larry Bonney, Terry Wills, Maynard MacGregor, Donny Schwartz, Frank Wetherbee.

Our Hamilton High basketball team started this year off with a bang! The Generals won five games in a row and were leading the league at this point. But unfortunately the team went into a slump and couldn't pull out of it. At the season's end, the team did end up with a creditable 8-8 record. This was good enough for fourth place in the Cape Ann League.

Next year's team will sorely miss Co-Captains Maynard MacGregor and Don Schwartz, who were outstanding all year, along with Terry Wills, Skip Wetherbee, Alan Liporto and David Liporto. Maynard MacGregor and Skip Wetherbee represented Hamilton at the annual All-Star game, played at Pentucket.

Junior Varsity

Row I: Richard Freeman, Henry Stelline, Robert Brindle, Bruce Marshall, James Clyde.

Although lacking in experience and height, our Junior Varsity Basketball Team played very well under the direction of their new coach, Mr. Davis. Led by Dick Wetherbee, David Crowell, and Bob Brindle, the Colonels compiled an impressive 8-8 record against very tough opponents. The team is composed almost entirely of freshmen and sophomores. These boys gained a lot of valuable experience this year and will be pretty hard to beat next season.

Baseball

Row I: Richard Hamill, Jeff Flanders, Gus Hoaglund, Donny Schwartz, Bobby Harrington, Jimmy DeAngelis, Larry Bonney.

Last year's baseball team had an overall record of 8 wins and 8 losses. Though this is not too impressive, the competition was very tough throughout the league.

The Generals have lost a lot of key players because of graduation. Coach Snow will have to build his team around the few returning veterans. Among these are pitcher, Don Sumner, who won half our games last year, and Don Schwartz, Terry Wills, Bob Harrington, Larry Bonney, Al Smerczynski, and Doug Surpitski. Coach Snow is also counting on new players that might come out like pitcher, Bob Sabeau.

CHEERING SQUAD

Geraldine Colwell, Elaine Agganis, Elizabeth Dawe, Stephanie Rowlands, Anna Vallone, Carolyn Coe, Charlotte Hughes, Barbara Begg.

After a hectic summer, filled with cake sales and car washes in a frenzied effort to raise money for our new uniforms, the Football Cheerleaders settled down to plan the first rally-dance of the year. The two practices a week in preparation for Saturday's game kept us busy afternoons, while evenings were spent merrily practicing for the opening and closing rallies with our beloved football players. "The Season" ended with a hilarious rally under the leadership of the inimitable football players, alias "The Cheerleaders."

CHEERLEADERS

Varsity Hockey

Row I: Jane Rowlands, Anne Poole, Charlotte Henderson, Deborah Brannum, Linda Mailhoit, Barbara Chruniak.

Row II: Marie Walsh, Dreaner Giles, Carole Colontoni, Gail Leavitt, Peggy Poehler, Mrs. Schneider, Coach.

Row III: Linda Hoaglund, Carolyn Thomas, Sally Nystedt, Harryatt Mueller, Nancy Sevigney.

Absent: Bonnie Higgins.

Under their new coach, Mrs. Schneider, the Girl's Field Hockey Team went through an undefeated season this year. Led by Captain Bonnie Higgins, the girls won all three of their games. They beat Wenham, 2-1 and 4-0, and they also beat the North Shore Country Day Team.

CHEERING SQUAD

Basketball

Row I: Claire Cullity, Beverly Pray, Linda Stone, Caroline Newbegin, Cynthia Perkins.

The Basketball Cheerleaders started off the season at a dance and rally on December 9. At this time they introduced new uniforms and a number of new cheers to the student body.

The cheerleaders, led by Cynthia Perkins and Nancy Neville, have plans for a rally or two which should create more school spirit.

Their goal for the year was to do their best in cheering the boys on to victory.

Basketball

Row I: Stephy Rowlands, Bonnie Higgins, Jane Rowlands.

Row II: Gail Child, Harryatt Mueller, Jeanne Mueller.

Due to a change in gym teachers, the girls' basketball program had a late start this year. Instead of the usual Varsity program, there was an innovation in the intramural program, where six teams, led by six elected captains – Bonnie Higgins, Gail Child, Jane Rowlands, Stephy Rowlands, and Carol Perkins – were chosen to play against each other.

Because the intramural program was unsuccessful, the team as a whole petitioned a return to Varsity sports. The petition was granted, and the girls joyfully returned to the Varsity-J.V. teams, and a schedule where over half the games had been cancelled. As they were again without a coach, veteran Bonnie Higgins doubled as coach-captain, doing a terrific job!

Spirits ran high although scores were low as they finished the season.

Junior Varsity Basketball

Row I: Merrilyn Clay, Gloria Barnes, Ann Gray, Judith Gilbride, Deborah Noone.

Row II: Barbara Hall, Sally Nystedt, Linda Hoaglund, Diane Leach, Carolyn Thomas, Harryatt Mueller.

The Jr. Varsity team this year was happy to have many new and enthusiastic girls try out for the team. Under the leadership of Captain Jane Rowlands, they finished the season with a record equal to that of the Varsity team.

In their second year of providing instrumental music for High School activities, the Cavaliers, under the direction of Jim Mortimer, have shown a marked improvement from last year. Members of the Cavaliers played at all the football games and also performed at other school functions during the year. Due to the fact that several of the members can play two different instruments, the scope of adaptability of this group has been widened.

The purpose of this organization is to further the student's interest in teaching and to aid the faculty and students of Hamilton High whenever possible.

Some of the activities of the F.T.A. this year have been: cake sales, magazine drives for the H.H.S. library, assembly during National Education Week, visits to nearby colleges, and observation and student teaching on the elementary level.

The captain of our Math Team is James Mortimer. Phyllis Schindel is Secretary and William Barnes, Treasurer.

To become a member of the National Honor Society is perhaps the most outstanding mark of achievement that a person can attain in high school. The entrance requirements to the Honor Society are stiff.
